INTRODUCTION

This work represents a combined total of over 75 years of research into Giddings genealogy by the authors, 50 years by Bland and 25 by Ralph. We have been collaborating for over 20 years. At one time we naively hoped to have it both complete and free from errors. Experience made it clear, however, that this would be impossible. All genealogies have errors and omissions, and we are no exception. Since both of us are over eighty, we considered it prudent to publish what has been learned thus far, to insure that these years of work would not be lost when one or both of us die. It is hoped that readers will appreciate the information presented, and forgive us the errors and omissions.

This work was created in the following manner. Working independently, both authors first established their own direct lines. Then, for many years, all possible records that contained the name "Giddings" were collected and stored in file cabinets. About twenty years ago, with the aid of computer programs, these records were gone over, identified, correlated, and arranged into families.

SOURCES

Sources consulted are far too numerous to footnote in detail. Minot S. GIDDINGS book, THE GIDDINGS FAMILY, published in 1882, was of course the starting point. This vital book is cited herein simply as "Minot" in both the text and in footnotes. While it is frequently criticized as inadequate, it is still a noteworthy achievement. We hope that we have corrected many of Minot's errors without belittling his achievement. We also hope that some future member of the family will correct some of our errors and omissions as we have corrected Minot's. Unfortunately, some of Minot's errors have made their way into the IGI and thus are being perpetuated.

Every kind of record available was consulted. This includes, but is not limited to:

Ancestral File, Family History Library, cited as "AF"
Census Reports, both Federal and State
Local Vital Records, cited as "VRs"
The International Genealogical Index, Family History Library, cited as "IGI" Published Family Genealogies/Histories
Correspondence with Giddings descendants and relatives
Local Histories
Social Security Death Records
Military Records
Newspaper notices, articles, and obituaries
Barbour Collection of Connecticut VRs, cited as "Barbour" Hale Collection of Connecticut Deaths cited as "Hale"
Genealogical societies, journals, and publications
Probate records
Internet: World Wide Web, genealogical bulletin boards, news groups, etc.

Both authors have made numerous trips to New England, the mid-West, and elsewhere, to visit local libraries, genealogical societies, archival sources, cemeteries, libraries, and so forth. The Family History Library, Salt Lake City, UT, and Family History Centers of the LDS Church, especially at Mesa, AZ, and Fort Collins, CO, have been visited frequently and used extensively. They are an invaluable resource.

GIDDINGS IDENTIFICATION NUMBERS (GIDID)

The Giddings Identification Numbers used herein serve to identify, with a unique number, each member of the family who has been identified and properly located in the family tree. These numbers are more than random numbers, but are so constructed as to exactly place each member in his or her proper place. They also indicate the sex, pedigree, and generation number of the member. The system works as follows:

George of Ipswich is Number 1. Thereafter, the sons are given numbers in order of birth, with the oldest son being "1", and the daughters are given letters in order of birth, with the oldest daughter being "A". Each successive member takes his or her father's number and adds one more character, numbers for sons and letters for daughters. Thus, George's second son, John, is Number 12, and John's sixth son, Thomas, is 126. Decimals are placed after every three numbers to make them easier to read. All numbers descend through the father's number with only a few exceptions. For instance: Martha, GIDID 112.3A, married a Samuel GIDDINGS, but since he has not otherwise been identified, their descendants carry her number forward. Also Ernestine, GIDID 125.324.11A, married Frederick Wallis DAGGETT and had a son, Jerome. Ernestine died shortly after Jerome's birth, and he was adopted by his maternal grandparents and raised as a GIDDINGS. He and his descendants carry Ernestine's number forward.

Giddings Identification Numbers (GIDIDs) serve two additional functions. By counting the digits in a GIDID, the generation number of the person in question is identified. Thus, Martha, GIDID 112.3A, (mentioned in the paragraph above) has five digits in her GIDID. She is thus fifth generation. Also, by dropping digits from the right, one at a time, her pedigree is established. Thus, Martha's pedigree is 1, 11, 112, 112.3. For this reason the lineage of members is not repeated in a member's write-up, nor is a superscript to indicate his/her generation needed. All this information is fully contained in the GIDID.

There are a number of GIDDINGS families in North America not descended from George and Jane. Other Giddings families, from other original immigrants, are given numbers starting with 2, 3, 4, and so on. A line is called "unattached" when the original immigrant of that line has not been identified. The letter "U" preceding an GIDID (e.g.U211) indicates an unattached line. It is also interesting to note that about 20 black GIDDINGS served in the Union Army in the Civil War.

CONVENTIONS USED

Family names are capitalized. Where known, a wife's maiden name is always given in parenthesis. Thus, the wife of George of Ipswich is Jane (LAWRENCE) GIDDINGS. When a family member is mentioned in the write-up of another, the person mentioned is identified with his or her GIDID thus: "Job GIDDINGS, GIDID 123.11".

In the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries, when a child died young, that name was frequently given to another child born in that family. When this is done the notation (I) or (II) is added to the name. Thus, John (I) is the first child of that family named "John", while John (II) is the second.

When a name is given as George "John" it indicates that the person was named George John, but went as John.

When a family member is listed as a child in the parent's family, the entry is headed thus:

i. 121+ George (M17).

i.	He is the first child of this parent.
121	His Giddings Identification Number.
+	He has children, and will be found in the next generation as head of a family.
George	His given name.
(M17)	His number in Minot. The note (MC&A) means Minot Corrections and Additions.

FIRST GENERATION

1. George GIDDINGS (M1)[1] = Jane LAWRENCE

George was b in 1609. To place that event in historical perspective, the Spanish Armada was defeated in July 1588, Queen Elizabeth I d in 1603, and Shakespeare d in 1616. In 1609 the Pilgrim Fathers left England to settle in Leyden, Holland. In 1620 they left Holland and went on to found Plymouth Colony. In 1629 King Charles I granted a royal charter to establish the Massachusetts Bay Company, and in the summer of 1630 some 900 to 1,000 men and women crossed the Atlantic and established the Massachusetts Bay Colony in Boston and several nearby towns.

George GIDDINGS, progenitor of the principal Giddings line in North America, was bp at Clapham, Bedfordshire, England, on 24 Sep 1609. He was the first child and only son of John and Joan (PURRIER) GIDDINGS, and grandson of Michael and Kathrine GYDDYNS. Following his father's death, his mother m (2) Robert PHAGE. George had three full sis and two half bro (the half brothers not in the Giddings line).

On 20 Feb 1634 he m Jane LAWRENCE, dau of Thomas and Joane (ANTROBUS) LAWRENCE, at St Albans, Hertsfordshire. She had been bp 18 Dec 1614 at St Albans. Following Jane's birth her father had died, and Joane m (2) John TUTTLE, resulting in Minot's confusion as to her maiden name. On 2 Apr 1635 George and Jane, together with three indentured servants, boarded the ship Planter, Nicholas TRARICE, master, at "Ye Port of London" to sail for Massachusetts Bay Colony.[2] At least 26 members of Jane's family, including George and wife, are included in the passenger list of the Planter. The passenger list gives George as a "Husbandman", i.e. a farmer.

[2] See John Camden HOTTEN, Original Lists of Persons of Quality: 1600-1700, Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc., Baltimore, 1980.

The reason for George and Jane leaving England is not recorded, but it can safely be inferred from history. They left England because they were Puritans, members of a religious sect that wished to carry the Reformation well beyond the "halfway" position (between Roman Catholics and Protestants) that had been adopted by the Church of England. These people left England for the new world in large numbers during the reign of Charles I (1625-1649). That so many of one family left as a unit is in keeping with Puritanism.

Once in America, George did well. Shortly after arriving he was granted 100 acres of land in Ipswich. He became a Ruling Elder of the Church and was Deputy to the General Court from Ipswich 12 times between 1641 and 1675. He was a selectman from 1661 to 1675. George died at Ipswich on 1 Jun 1676, with an estate valued by post mortem inventory at £1,021 12s 06p, a considerable sum in those days. Since George died intestate, his sons agreed to the division of his estate. A transcription of this agreement is found as Document 1, p 3.[3]

Through Jane the descendants of George and Jane can claim Royal Descent.[4] Jane died 2 March 1680. Both were certainly buried at Ipswich, although neither grave has been located.

Children[5] of George and Jane, all b at Ipswich:

i. 11+ Thomas[2] (M2) was b in 1638. On 22 Feb 1668 at Ipswich he m (1) Mary GOODHUE, dau of Dea. William and Margery (WATSON) GOODHUE. He was widowed, and ca 1675 prob also at Ipswich, m (2) Elizabeth, family name and dob unknown. He d 19 Jun 1681, prob at Ipswich. Elizabeth m (2) John CHOATE on 19 May 1690 at Ipswich.

ii. 12+ Lt. John[2] (M3) was b in 1639. He was known as "Lieutenant" from service in King Philip's War. About 1660 he m Sarah ALCOCK of Kittery, ME, dau of John and Elizabeth ALCOCK of Kittery, ME. Sara was b at Kittery. He d 3 Mar 1691 at Ipswich. Sarah then m (2) Henry HERRICK. Sarah d 29 Dec 1711 at Gloucester, MA.

iii. 13+ James[2] (M4) was b in 1641. In 1670 at Ipswich he m Elizabeth ANDREWS, dau of Lt. John and Jane (JORDAN) ANDREWS. Elizabeth was b in 1652 at Ipswich. James d after 1697 and Elizabeth d after 1709.

iv. 14+ Samuel[2] (M5) was b in 1645. On 4 Oct 1671 at Ipswich he m (1) Hannah MARTIN[7], who is otherwise unk. After Hannah's death he m (2) Elizabeth SAMPLE, who is likewise unk. This marriage was on 8 Nov 1699 at Boston. He prob d in 1706, as his will was proved that year. Elizabeth d 15 Nov 1709.

v. 15+ Joseph Collins[2] (M6) was b in 1650. The middle name is questionable. However, it is retained here since it is found in Minot, and thus is recognized by many. On 20 Jul 1671 at Ipswich he m Susannah RINDGE/RINGE, dau of Daniel and his third wife Mary (KINSMAN) RINDGE. Susannah was b ca1652 in Ipswich. Joseph d 31 Mar 1691.

vi. 1A Rebecca[2] (NIM) was probably the oldest dau, as she is the first girl listed in the probate court records. She was alive and unm when her father d. She is listed in Minot as "Sarah", a non-existent dau.

[7] IGI lists her as Hannah BARTIN, married 11 October 1671.

vii. 1B Abigail[2] (NIM) was b ca 1649, and is listed in Minot as "George", a non-existent son. On 12 Feb 1673 at Ipswich she m Samuel DUTCH, son of Robert and Mary (KIMBALL) DUTCH. Abigail and Samuel had eight children: Samuel, George, Abigail, John, Mary, Jane, Dorothy, and Martha. Samuel was lost at sea in Dec 1711 or Jan 1712. Abigail d 14 Nov 1713, also at Ipswich, and was bur in the Old North Churchyard, Ipswich.

viii. 1C Mary[2] (M8) was b ca 1658, and was prob their youngest child. About 1680, prob at Ipswich, she m (1) Samuel PIERCE, son of Robert and Abigail PIERCE. After his death on 15 Mar 1694 at Salisbury, MA, she m (2) William HUBBARD, who is otherwise unk. She d in 1711. Ch from either m are unk.

SECOND GENERATION

The second generation was born between 1638 and 1658. In 1649 Charles I of England was beheaded, and from 1653 to 1658 Oliver Cromwell and the "Long Parliament" ruled England. In 1660 Charles I's son Charles II was restored to the English throne. In 1664 the Dutch colony of New Amsterdam surrendered to a British fleet and became New York. King Philip's War, (1675-1677) was the first of the American Indian Wars, and was the one in which the Indians came closest to final victory.

In the field of science, Sir Isaac Newton was b in 1642. In the arts the noted English architect, Sir Christopher Wren, was b in 1632, and political philosopher John Locke was b in 1642.

11. Thomas GIDDINGS[2] (M2) (George[1])
= (1) Mary GOODHUE
= (2) Elizabeth ____

Thomas, oldest child of George and Jane, was b in 1638. On 22 Feb 1668 he m (1) Mary GOODHUE, dau of Dea. William and Margary (WATSON) GOODHUE. See Chart 1, p 8 for the numerous GIDDINGS-GOODHUE marriages. Her dob is unk.

After Mary d he m (2) Elizabeth, maiden name unk. Thomas d 19 Jun 1681, prob at Ipswich. Following Thomas' death, Elizabeth, on 19 May 1690 at Ipswich, m (2) Dea. John CHOATE, being the second of his four wives.

Thomas and Mary had three ch, all born at Ipswich:

i. 11A Mary[3] (M10) was b in Dec 1669. On 19 Jun 1689 at Ipswich She m Thomas MANNING, son of Richard and Anstice (CALLEY) MANNING. He was b 11 Feb 1664 in England. They had six ch: Thomas, Anstice, Richard, Mary, John, and Joseph. Through her son John she became the grandmother of American author Nathaniel HAWTHORNE.[1] She d 24 Feb 1738/39 at Ipswich and Thomas d 14 May 1737.

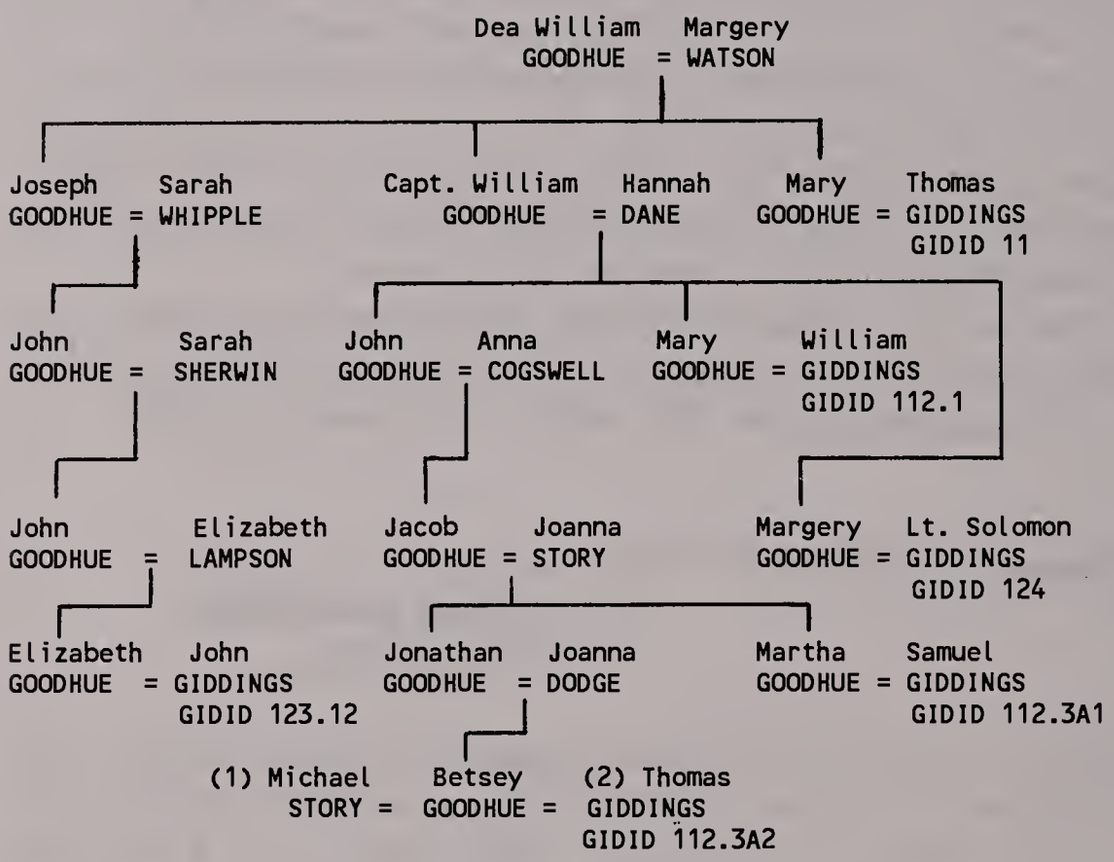

Chart 1. Some GIDDINGS-GOODHUE relationships. Data from History and Genealogy of the Goodhue Family, by Rev Jonathan E. Goodhue, Rochester, NY, 1891.

ii. 111 Thomas[3] (M11) was b ca 1672. Minot says he dsp. NFK.

iii. 112+ William[3] (M12) was b in 1673. On 19 Sep 1698 at Lynn, MA, he m Sarah HUTCHINGS, dau of Daniel and Susanna HUTCHINGS. She was b 30 Sep 1671 at Lynn, MA. William was appointed school master in Chebacco 13 Oct 1713. His death date is unk, but his will is dated 1757.

[1] See Gary Boyd Roberts, "Notable Kin", NEHGS NEXUS, Vol. VI, Nos. 3&4 (June-August 1989), p 108-112.

He may have d in Lynn, but was bur in Ipswich 4 Sep 1761. Sarah d 21 Jan 1766.

Thomas and Elizabeth had four additional ch, all b at Ipswich.

iv. 11B Eliza (Elizabeth?)[3] (M13).
She was prob b ca 1676. She dy (unm) in Ipswich.

v. 113 Samuel[3] (M14).
He was b ca 1677. NFK.

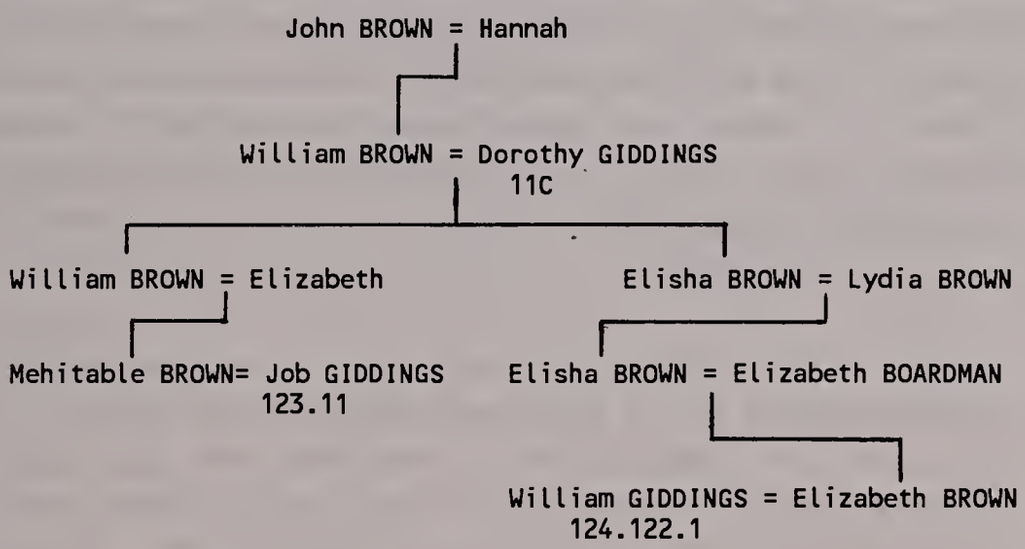

Chart 2. Some GIDDINGS-BROWN relationships. The possible relationship of other BROWNS who m GIDDINGS to this family is unk. See CANDLEWOOD: An Ancient Neighborhood in Ipswich, by T. Frank Waters, Salem Press, Salem MA, 1909.

vi. 11C Dorothy[3] (M15).
She was b ca 1678. On 17 Apr 1703(4?) at Ipswich she m William BROWN, son of John and Hannah BROWN. They had eight ch: William, Jr., Thomas, Elisha, Dorothy, Benjamin, Nehemiah, Stephen, and Nathaniel. She is the grandmother of Mehitable BROWN who married Job GIDDINGS, GIDID 123.11. See Chart 2 above.

vii. 11D Jane[3] (M16).
She was b ca 1680. On 27 Feb 1702/3 (int) at Ipswich she m Joseph HART. NFK.

12. Lt. John GIDDINGS[2] (M3) (George[1]) = Sarah ALCOCK

John, second son and prob the second child of George and Jane, was b at Ipswich ca 1639. About 1660, prob at Ipswich but possibly in what is now Maine, he m Sarah ALCOCK, dau of John and Elizabeth ALCOCK of Kittery, ME. During the King Philip's War John became a Lieutenant in the Militia.

John may have been a mercer/tailor. His step-father, John TUTTLE, was listed as a mercer on the passenger list of the Planter, and John's son Thomas, GIDID 126, was also probably a mercer/tailor. To have the trade passed from father to son to grandson would be in keeping with the times. This supposition is supported by the "Deposition of Thomas Pound the Pirate" who stated:

> ... After which Sayling through the Sound the wind blowing hard at North East wee were forced to Virginia and went into Yorke River where wee were kept by Easterly winds Seven or Eight dayes. two English men and a Negro came on board us in a Float and came away with us: the said men brought with them a peice of black Searge [serge] and some yards of Linnen Cloth and an old Mison Saile [mizzen sail] and some Gaules [gauze?], the men were named John Gidins and Edward Browne.[2]

He seems to have been on a trip buying cloth for his business.

John d at Ipswich on 3 Mar 1691. Sarah outlived him by 20 years. In Jun 1702 she m (2) Henry HERRICK, being his second wife. He was the son of Henry and Edith (LASKIN) HERRICK, and had been on the jury at the infamous Salem witchcraft trials of 1692. There were no ch by this second m. Sarah d on 29 Dec 1711 at Gloucester, MA.

John and Sarah had ten children, all prob born at Ipswich (Chebacco):

i. 121+ George[3] (M17) was b in 1664. On 19 May 1690 at Gloucester he m (1) Mary SKAMP [SCAMP], daughter of Robbard [Robert] and Jone [Joan] (COLLINS) SKAMP. She was b 25 Nov 1662 at Gloucester. She d there 9 Apr 1706.

Following Mary's death he m (2) Elizabeth (EVELETH) PERKINS, widow of Francis PERKINS, and dau of Joseph and Mary (BRAGG) EVELETH. The m took place at Ipswich on (int) 18 Jan 1706/7. Elizabeth was b 17 Dec 1671 at Gloucester, and d there 10 May 1727. He d at Gloucester sometime after 1734.

ii. 12A Elizabeth[3] (M18) was b ca 1666. On 16 Dec 1685 at Gloucester she m (1) Mark [Marke] HASKELL, son of William and Mary (TYBOTT or TYBBOT) HASKELL. He was b 8 Apr 1658 at Gloucester. Mark d 8 Sep 1691 at Gloucester.

Following his death she m (2) John DENNISON at Ipswich. She d 15 Sep 1725. Elizabeth and Mark had four children: George, Mark (I), Mark (II), and William.

iii. 12B Jane[3] (M19) was b ca 1668. On 26 Nov 1691 at Gloucester she m Joseph HARRADAN, son of Edward and Sarah (HARRINGTON) HARRADAINE and bro of John who m her sis Sarah. She is listed in the IGI as both "Jean" and "Joan". There were no known ch.

iv. 12C Sarah[3] (M20) was b in 1672. On 7 Feb 1693 at Gloucester she m Capt. John HARRADAN. He was the son of Edward and Sarah (HARRINGTON) HARRADAINE and bro of Joseph who m her sister Jane. They had eleven children: Dea. John, Andrew, Job, Thomas, Jonathan, Joseph, John, David, Sarah, Jean, and Mary. Sarah d 10 Oct 1722 and John d 11 Nov 1724, both at Glouchester.

v. 122 John[3] (M21) was b in 1675 and d 13 Nov 1742. NFK.

vi. 123+ Job[3] (M22) was b in 1677. He became a tailor. Sometime prior to 1701, prob in Ipswich, he m Sarah BUTLER, dau of William and Sarah (CROSS) BUTLER. She was b 23 Jul 1680 at Ipswich.[3] He died 27 Feb 1708/9 at Ipswich and was bur at Essex, MA. Following Job's death Sarah, on 29 Sep 1711 at Ipswich, m (2) John BAILEY of Newbury.

vii. 124+ Lt. Solomon[3] (M23) was b ca 1679. He was called "Lt.", prob from service in the militia. On 9 Nov 1706 [int] at Ipswich he m Margery GOODHUE, dau of Capt. THIRD GENERATION

The third generation was b between 1660 and 1700. Their lifetime spanned a period of conflict between France and England, marked by a series of European wars which were also taken up in the New World. These included the League of Ausburg War, which the British and French Colonists in North America took up as King William's War (1689-1697); the War of Spanish Succession, which the Colonies took up as Queen Anne's War (1702-1713); the War of Austrian Succession, called King George's War (1745-48) in the Colonies; and the Seven Years' War, called the French and Indian War (1754-63) in North America. These were all fought during the lifetime of the third and fourth generations.

In 1681 the Quaker colony of Pennsylvania was established by William Penn. In 1682 the French explorer, Sieur de La Salle, sailed the Mississippi, and established French Louisiana. In 1692 the infamous witchcraft trials were held in Salem, MA. In 1696 Fr. Kino established the Mission of San Xavier del Bac near present day Tucson, AZ. In 1690, during King William's War, New England troops captured Port Royal on the Bay of Fundy, but it was returned to the French at the Treaty of Ryswick.

In the Arts, J. S. Bach was b in 1685 and Voltaire was b in 1694. In science, Christiaan Huygens, in 1656, constructed the first pendulum clock.

[3] Her name is given as "Marjerry" in Ipswich VRs.

125 Joshua GIDDINGS[3] (M24) (John[2] George[1])
= Abigail ____

Joshua was b in 1681[4], again prob at Ipswich. He was the eighth ch of Lt. John and Sarah (BUTLER) GIDDINGS. On 10 Dec 1706 at Gloucester he m "Abigaill ____gs". The marriage is recorded in Gloucester VRs, but her maiden name is not readable. It might have been GLEASON. Joshua d on board a fishing sloop, John DAVIS, master, on a return voyage from Cape Sable in Oct 1716. Perhaps he was a fisherman. On 19 Nov 1725 either Abigail m (2) Pelatia DAY, or her daughter Abigail m him at age 18. Pelatia was the son of Ezekiel and Mary (ROWE) DAY.

Joshua and Abigail had five children:

i. 125.A Abigail[4] (NNM) is named in Minot on p 22, but is not given a number. She was b 30 Sep 1707 at Gloucester. Either she or her mother married Pelatia DAY in Gloucester on 19 November 1725.

[4] Gloucester VRs say he died in October 1716 at age 38 y. This would make his birth in 1678. Minot gives his birth as 1681.

126 Thomas GIDDINGS[3] (M25) (John[2] George[1])
= Sarah ANDREWS

Thomas was b at Ipswich (Chebacco) on 19 May 1683. He was the ninth ch and youngest son of Lt. John and Sarah ALCOCK. On 1 Jun 1708 at Ipswich he m Sarah ANDREWS[5], daughter of Joseph and Sarah (RING) ANDREWS. She is the niece of Elizabeth ANDREWS who married James GIDDINGS, GIDID 13, and the aunt of Eunice ANDREWS who married Joseph GIDDINGS, GIDID 126.2. (See Chart 2, p 13.)

They began married life at Gloucester, where their first two ch were born. Sometime before the birth of their son John, Thomas and Sarah removed to Lyme, CT, where, on 23 Dec 1718, Thomas was named tything man for the North Society. They returned briefly to Gloucester, where their dau and fourth son were born in 1719 and 1720. Thomas was back in Lyme in 1721, where Lyme Records: 1667-1730 show he was voted an "inhabitan" on 27 Dec 1721, a town officer on 24 Dec 1722, a "surveyer" on 4 Jan 1725, and a tythingman on 28 Dec 1726.[6] Thomas, their last child, was born in Lyme in 1723.

Thomas is said to have been a "mercer/taylor". This is given credence by the fact that he must have had a lot of clothing. In his will he leaves his "waring apparill" to his sons Joseph, John, Joshua, and Thomas, and to the heirs of his deceased son Job.

This couple had six children, five sons and one daughter. All the boys lived to adulthood and had children. The majority of people in North America with the GIDDINGS surname descend from this couple. He d 3 Sep 1754 at Lyme, and is bur beside Sarah in the Marvin Cemetery near Lyme. She had preceded him,

[7] A photograph of Dea. COULT's gravestone may be found in IFC.

[8] His gravestone gives the date of his death as 24 May 1790, but the Giddings Chest has it 26 May 1790.

131 Joseph GIDDINGS[3] (M27) (James[2] George[1])
= Elizabeth ROSS

Joseph was the oldest ch of James and Elizabeth (ANDREWS) GIDDINGS. Minot has almost no information on Joseph, and what he does have is largely wrong. He was b ca 1667 at Ipswich. He m Elizabeth ROSS in Essex on or before 29 Mar 1698. Perhaps he was something of a black sheep. His marriage is found in the Essex fornication records.[9] He seems to have removed to Boston shortly after his marriage. The list of children Minot ascribes to this Joseph belong to James, GIDID 134.2. Nothing of Elizabeth is known by the present writers.

Joseph and Elizabeth had four children, all born in Boston, and none of whom are listed in Minot:

i. 131.1 George[4] (NIM) was b on 3 Nov 1705. NFK.
ii. 131.2+ Joseph[4] (NIM) was b on 24 Oct 1707. On 9 Sep 1731 at Boston he m Katherine BERRY, about whom NFK.

[10] A photograph of his tombstone may be found in the photograph section. A photograph of the stone of Mary's father, Dea. Benjamin Coult, who is bur in the Lyne Cemetery may be found in Ralph Giddings book Ipswich to Fort Collins.

[11] Photographs of this chest may be found in the photograph section. A transcription of the inscription may be found in NEHGR, Vol. CXXXIX (Jan. 1985) pp. 58-59.

[12] His name was "Dan", not "Daniel" as given by Minot in the main text. However, he corrects this mistake in his "Additions and Corrections".

Dan's mother, Mary (COULT) GIDDINGS, also removed to VT after the death of Dea. Thomas. Dan, Sarah, and Mary all d in Rutland: Dan on 3 Apr 1818, Sarah on 19 Sep 1849, and Mary on 17 Nov 1812. They were bur in the Pleasant Street Cem., Rutland.

iii. 126.5A Miriam (I)[5] (NIM). This first Miriam is not in Minot, but her existence is known through the Giddings Chest. She was b 4 Aug 1751 at Lyme and d there in Nov 1752 (the day is omitted on the Giddings Chest).

iv. 126.53+ Thomas[5] (M664) was b at Lyme on 29 Aug 1753. He was a private in the Revolutionary War. About 1775, prob at Simsbury, CT, he m (1) Affiah HAYES, dau of Asahel and Martha (HOLCOMBE) HAYES. Affiah was b 24 Sep 1757 [5 May 1765?] at Simsbury. She d 19 Dec 1804.

v. 126.54 Festus[5] (M665) was b 24 Sep 1756 at Hartland, and d unm on 11 Mar 1777, prob while serving as a private in the Revolutionary War.

vi. 126.55+ Jabez[5] (M671). Minot says "Jabez is thought to have been a son of Dea. Thomas." This is confirmed by the inscription on the Giddings Chest. He was b 7 Oct 1758 at Hartland. He too was a private in the Revolutionary War. On 20 Sep 1784 at Hartland he m Mercy JOHNSON, dau of Caleb and Mary (COOKE) JOHNSON. Mercy was b 1 Oct 1760 at East Hampton, CT, and is a Mayflower descendant. Jabez d 23 Oct 1789 at Hartland, and is bur in East Hartland Cem.

Mercy then on 28 Sep 1806 m (2) Amherst COULT, widower of her sister Miriam (II) and a nephew of Mary (COULT) GIDDINGS. Mercy and Amherst removed to Auburn, NH.

vii. 126.5B Mary (I)[5] (NIM). Like Miriam (I), Mary (I) is not in Minot, and knowledge of her existence is through the Giddings chest. She was b 8 Nov 1760 and d at age two on 6 Apr 1763.

viii. 126.5C Miriam (II)[5] (M666) was b 22 Apr 1762 at Hartland. On 12 Sep 1784 at Hartland she m Amherst COULT, the son of Mary (COULT) GIDDINGS' brother John COULT and his first wife, Mary (LORD) COULT.

Miriam d 28 Oct 1805 in MA, and Amherst then m (2) Mercy (JOHNSON) GIDDINGS, widow of Miriam's brother Jabez. Miriam had nine ch: John, John Gardner, Miriam, Abigail, William, Aseneth, Amherst, Mary, and Lydia.

ix. 126.5D Mary (II)[5] "Polly" (M667) is styled "Mary" in Minot and "Polly" on the Giddings chest, resulting in some confusion. She was b 1 Sep 1762 at Hartland. On 7 May 1782 [IGI gives 6 May 1782] at Hartland she m Darius CASE of Simsbury, son of Noah and Miriam (HOLCOMB) CASE. He was b 7 Mar 1756 at Simsbury, CT. They had eight ch: Darius, Clarrisa, Harriet, Temperance, Anson, Laura, Austin, and Rosadile. Darius d 19 Dec 1801 and Polly d 19 Oct 1831 at Bloomfield, CT.

152.1 Joseph GIDDINGS[4] (M67) (Isaac[3] Joseph[2] George[1]) = Prudence KNOWLTON

Joseph was the third ch of Isaac and Abigail (KNOWLTON) GIDDINGS. He was bp on 6 Mar 1714/15 at Ipswich. On 9 Jan 1737 (IGI has 28 Dec 1737 and 28 Dec 1738) at Ipswich he m Prudence KNOWLTON, dau of Capt. John and Abigail (BATCHELDER) KNOWLTON. Prudence was b 13 Apr 1718. Minot says that Joseph "may be the same one who was lost at sea Mch. 19, 1776....", but this is not correct. Joseph died at Manchester "about ye middle" of Sep 1752. Prudence was prob related to her mother-in-law.

Joseph and Prudence had seven children.

i. 152.1A Hannah[5] (NIM) was bp 3 Sep 1738 at Ipswich. NFK.
ii. 152.1B Abigail[5] (NIM) was bp 15 May 1740 at Manchester. NFK.

vi. 152.12 Andrew[5] (NIM) was bp 18 Jun 1749 at Beverly, MA. He dsp "about ye middle" of Sep 1752. Since this repeats the exact words used in reporting his father's death, it is possible they died together.

vii. 152.13 Isaac[5] (NIM) was bp 25 Aug 1751 at Beverly. NFK.

152.2 Isaac GIDDINGS (M68) (Isaac[3] Joseph[2] George[1])
= Elizabeth GOLDSMITH

Isaac is listed and given a number in Minot, but nothing other than his name is given. He was the fifth ch of Isaac and Abigail (KNOWLTON) GIDDINGS, and was bp 3 Dec 1721 at Ipswich, and was a private in the Revolutionary War. On 26 Dec 1743 [IGI says 1742] at Wenham, MA, he m Elizabeth GOLDSMITH, dau of Zaccheus and Mehitable (KIMBALL) GOLDSMITH. She was b ca 1723 and d in Jan 1790 at Middleton, MA.

[25] IGI has b 22 Apr 1782 in Wells Twp., Rutland.

[26] Minot gives the date as 24 Nov 1765. That date seems unlikely in view of the chronology, however the marriage has not been located in VRs.

Joseph and Abigail had seven ch. Five are given in Minot and six are found in the IGI, where Cooperstown, NY, is given as the place of their birth:

i. 126.251 Hiram[6] (M367) was prob b in CT ca 1786. Other than his listing in Minot, nothing is known of him.

ii. 126.25A Mary[6] (NIM) was b ca 1787 prob in Cooperstown, NY. She may have dy. NFK.

The Giddings - Burnham House in 1884 (top) and 1984 (bottom). Inset is a plaque near the door given by the Ipswich Historical Society, which states the house was "Built by George Giddings before 1667." 1667 is the year George sold the house to his brother-in-law, Thomas Burnham (see Chart 6, page 49) and is the earliest documented date. The house was probably built in the late 1630s or early 1640s. The 1884 photo is courtesy of the Society for the Preservation of New England Antiquities. Susannah was the dau of Phineas and Susannah (BRADLEY) PERKINS and was b 22 May 1752, prob at Branford, CT. Elisha was probably quite sick when he was discharged, as he d 3 Apr 1777 at Hartland, and Susannah also d 7 Feb 1777. Elisha was bur in East Hartland. Susannah's grave has not been recovered, but almost certainly it was in East Hartland.

Elisha and Susannah only lived to have one ch.

i. 126.411+ Capt. Thomas[6] (NIM) was b in Hartland 27 Jan 1776. Nowhere in his writings or testimony does he ever mention his parents. He was less than a year old when both d, and thus never knew them. He removed to OH, where he was one of the first settlers in Trumbull County. He was a Captain in the Ohio Militia in the War of 1812.

He returned briefly to CT (probably to get married), where, in Hartford on 6 Mar 1800, he m (1) Lydia BROCKWAY, dau of Joseph and ___ (ADAMS) BROCKWAY. She was b in Jan 1781 in Branford, CT. It is recorded that Lydia walked from Hartford to Trumbull County. Lydia d in Vernon, OH, 23 Jul 1826.

SIXTH GENERATION

The sixth generation was born between 1750 and 1820, a period that encompassed the Revolutionary War, the Louisiana Purchase, the Lewis and Clark expedition, and the War of 1812. Many of this generation fought in that war. During this period Europe was engaged in the French Revolution and the Napoleonic Wars. In the United States George Washington was elected president under the new Constitution, and in 1790 the first census was taken.

Settlement west of the Appalachians proceeded, with Kentucky admitted to the union in 1792, Tennessee in 1796, and Ohio in 1803. In the American West, in about 1830 (the exact date is in question) Bent's Old Fort, a stopping place on the Santa Fe Trail (opened ca 1827), was established in what is now South East Colorado. Robert E. Lee was b in 1807, Abraham Lincoln in 1809, and U. S. Grant in 1822.

Charles Goodyear, who discovered vulcanized rubber, was born in 1800. In 1807 Robert Fulton's steam boat Clermont sailed from New York to Albany and back. Work on the Erie Canal was begun in 1817 and completed in 1825. This led to rapid development of such mid-west states as OH, IN, IL, MI, and WI. In England, Henry Bessemer was b in 1813. His invention of the "Bessemer Converter" made abundant and inexpensive steel readily available.

In the field of arts, Beethoven was b in 1770, and Giddings descendant Nathaniel Hawthorne, author of The House with Seven Gables, was b in 1804. In science, Andre Ampere was b in 1775, and Charles Darwin in 1809. John Stuart Mill of England was b in 1806, and Karl Marx was b in 1818. In 1799 the Rosetta Stone was discovered in Egypt by Napoleon's soldiers.

134.133 Capt. James GIDDINGS[6] (M787)[109] (Solomon[5] Nathaniel[4] Nathaniel[3] James[2] George[1])
= Lucy DEMING

James was the fourth ch of Solomon and Sarah (WATERMAN) GIDDINGS. He was b 29 Jun 1780 in Norwich, CT. He became a sea captain and trader before retiring to the farm. At one time he was captured at sea by a French Privateer and held prisoner in Havana for forty days. In 1810 he was shipwrecked off Cape Hatteras and floated on wreckage for three days before rescue. This led him to retire from seafaring, and to seek a safe place to raise his growing family.

[108] His name is spelled "SAFFER" in the will.

[109] Much data on this branch of the family is from Mr. J. N. BROWN, grandson of Annie Helen (GIDDINGS) BROWN, GIDID 134.133.5A. Barbara (GIDDINGS) BLACK, GIDID 134.133.621.2C, has done much research on this branch of the family. Also see The Autobiography of Marie Antoinette (GIDDINGS) LYON. A 20-page writeup on the "Texas Branch", including photographs, may be found in Mrs. R. E. Pennington, The History of Brenham and Washington County, Standard Printing and Lithograph, Houston, TX, 1915.

On 23 Sep 1802, prob at Norwich, he m Lucy DEMING, dau of Capt. Jabez and Lucy (STODDARD) DEMING, and sister of Barsheba who m his bro Levi. Capt. DEMING had been James' instructor in navigation. Lucy was b 17 Jun 1783 in Norwich. nI 1812 James moved his family to Herrick (now Herrick Center), Susquhanna Co., PA, where he could raise his family and they would not go to sea. Lucy d 18 Jun 1861 in Herrick, and James d there 26 Dec 1863. They were bur in the Old Union Dale Cem., Union Dale, Susquhanna Co., PA.

v. 134.133.3 Giles Albert[7] (M814) was b 16 Oct 1812 in Herrick, PA. He was first a merchant and then a surveyor. In 1834 he went to Texas to select and survey a place for a colony from PA, but when the War of Texas Independence broke out he joined Sam Houston's Army. On 10 Apr 1836 he wrote his parents a much quoted letter datelined "Texas, four miles from Headquarters". See pp 261 and 262.

He was mortally wounded at the Battle of San Jacinto and d 7 Jun 1836 in Galveston. He was bur in the San Jacinto Battleground Cem. As a result of his service in the war, he was awarded a sizable piece of land in Texas. Since he was not alive to claim it, Napoleon Boneparte GIDDINGS, GIDID 132.113.4, q.v., attempted to lay claim to it. The family in PA got wind of this, and Giles' brother, Jabez Deming, "J.D.", went to TX to assert their rights to this land.

vi. 134.133.4+ Jabez Deming[7] (M815) "J.D.", as he was known, was b 8 Oct 1814 in Herrick, PA. In the fall of 1838 he went to TX to settle the estate of his brother Giles (see above). He liked the country and determined to settle there. He began in TX as a school teacher, and later became a lawyer and a banker.

He is usually credited with having the town of Giddings, TX, named for him. This is correct, although

TEXAS, FOUR MILES FROM HEAD-QUARTERS
April 10, 1836

Dear Parents,

Since I last wrote you I have been engaged in arranging an expedition against the Indians, who have committed many depredations against the frontier. On my return to the settlements, I learned that our country was again invaded by a merciless horde of Mexicans, who were waging a war of extermination against the inhabitants. A call was made for all friends of humanity to rise in arms and resist the foe. Men were panic-stricken and fled, leaving their all behind them. I could not reconcile it to my feelings to leave Texas without an effort to save it. Accordingly, I bent my course for the army and arrived last evening at this place. I shall enter camp this morning as a volunteer. The army, commanded by Gen. Houston, is lying on the west side of the Brazos, 20 miles from San Fillippe. The enemy is in that place waiting an attack. It is reported Houston will attack them in the morning. What will be the result, or the fate of Texas, is hid in the bowels of futurity. Yet, I think we are engaged in the cause of justice, and hope the God of battles will protect us. The enemy's course has been the most bloody that has ever been recorded on the page of history. Our garrison at San Antonio was taken and massacred; so another detachment of seven hundred, commanded by Col. Fanning, and posted at La Bahia, after surrendering prisoners of war; were led out and shot down like bears. Only one escaped to tell their melancholy fate. In their course they show no quarter to age, sex, or condition, all are massacred without mercy. If such conduct is not sufficient to arouse the patriotic feedings of the sons of liberty, I know not what will. I was born in a land of freedom, and taught to lisp the name of liberty with my infant tongue, and rather than be driven out of the country or submit to be a slave, I will leave my bones to bleach on the plains of Texas. If we succeed in subduing the enemy and establishing a free and independent government, we shall have the finest country the sun ever shone upon, and if we fail, we shall have the satisfaction of dying fighting for the rights of man. I know not that I shall have an opportunity of writing to you in some time, but shall do so as often as is convenient. Be not alarmed about my safety. I am no better,, and my life no dearer than those who gained the liberty you enjoy. If I fall you will have the satisfaction that your son died fighting for the rights of man. Our strength in the field is about 1,500. The enemy is reported 4,000 strong; a fearful odds, you will say; but what can mercenary hirelings do against the sons of liberty?

Before this reaches you the fate of Texas will be known. I will endeavor to acquaint you as soon as possible. I am well and in good spirits, and as unconcerned as if going to a raising. The same Being who has hitherto protected my life can with equal ease ward off the balls of the enemy. My company is waiting,, and I must draw to a close, and bid you farewell, perhaps forever. More than a year has elapsed since I saw you, yet the thoughts of friends and home are fresh in my memory, and their remembrance yet lives in my affections and will light a secret joy to my heart till it shall cease to beat. Long has it been since I have heard from you. How often do I think of home and wish to be there. The thought of that sacred spot haunts my night-watches. How often, when sleep has taken possession of my faculties, am I transported there, and for a short time enjoy all the pleasures of home; but the delusion is soon over, and the morning returns and I find my situation the same. Dear friends, if I see you no more, remember Giles still loves you. Give my love to my sisters, brothers, friends, and neighbors. I would write more if time would permit, but its fleeting steps wait for none. You need not write to me, as I do not know where I shall be. With sentiments of sincere respect I bid you farewell.

Your affectionate son,

G. A. GIDDINGS
